

REF: 2015S40/0021

From:

Sent: 19 December 2014 02:47

To: Nature Conservation

Subject: Hedgerows

I read with interest that hedgerows cannot be cut between 1st March and 31st August. Here in the south east in Co Wexford they cut them all through the summer and especially throughout August. In fact this August all of the lanes where I live were chopped to pieces. The farmers here do not care one bit for the wildlife living in the hedges. There is no one here to police it so they do what they like.