

REF: 2015S40/0095

From:

Sent: 09 January 2015 13:59

To: Nature Conservation

Subject: Ban the burning uplands and extend the ban on hedgecutting

Ban all burning of the uplands to preserve what little is left of the natural wildlife of Ireland. Extend the ban on the hedge cutting season and have no exclusions ,again, to preserve what little is left of the natural wildlife in Ireland. As a people we need to look after our country side and the wildlife instead of destroying it all in the name of progress and money!