

Ref: 2015S40/153

Sent: 10 January 2015 07:37

To: Nature Conservation

Subject: incineration of bushes

Dear Sirs

An Irish friend of mine alarmed me writing that there are systematic bushfires in Ireland no doubt initiated by thoughtless people who do not know what an important part of the habitat bushes and trees are.

So I ask you to stop and forbid this practice at once which is ruining the options for a vast number of species that only live on unspoilt terrains.

Yours truly

Zürich
Switzerland