

Burren Invertebrate Conference

ONLINE CONFERENCE PROGRAMME

Day 1 Tuesday 9 August 2022

Invertebrate diversity

09.50	Introduction and welcome
10.00	Overview of the Burren invertebrates	Brian Nelson
10.30	The butterflies of the Burren	Jesmond Harding
10.55	Selected moths of the Burren - a strange brew	Dave Allen
11.20	COFFEE
11.50	Invertebrate communities at Ballyogan and Slieve Carran	Adam Mantell
12.15	The Burren as an internationally unique site for water beetles	Garth Foster
12.40	Hoverflies	Tom Gittings
13.05-13.20	Closing comments day 1

Day 2 Wednesday 10 August 2022

Managing for Invertebrates

09.50	Introduction and welcome
10.00	The role of the traditional Sunday roast on invertebrate conservation in calcareous grasslands	Ashley Lyons
10.30	Delivering conservation through a results-based agri-environmental programme - lessons from the Burren	Sharon Parr
10.55	Pollinators and management on Burren farmland	Dara Stanley
11.20	COFFEE
11.50	Ants and management	Tim King
12.20	Management for butterflies	Nigel Bourn
12.45	Land snails and land management in the Burren	Maria Long
13.10-13.30	Closing comments

An Roinn Tithíochta,
Rialtais Áitiúil agus Oidhreachta
Department of Housing,
Local Government and Heritage

<http://michaeltusack.ie/>
<http://burrenprogramme.com/>
<https://www.burrennationalpark.ie/>

<https://www.npws.ie/research-projects/animal-species/invertebrates>

