

The Inch Woodland Challenge

Are you ready to take the Inch Woodland Challenge?

Answer the questions and complete the tasks

1 What is a Habitat?

2 What type of Habitat did you visit today?

3 What is the name given to the group of trees that loose their leaves in the autumn?

4 What is the name given to the group of trees that do not loose their leaves in the autumn?

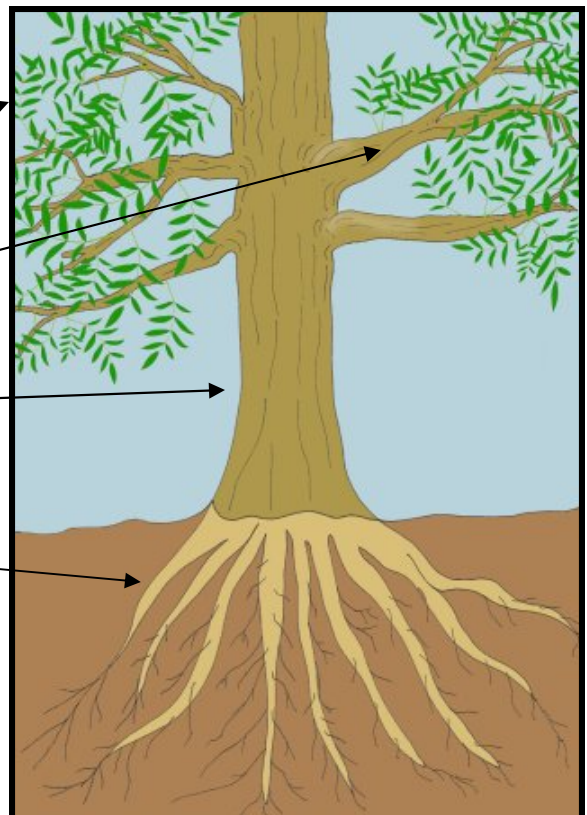

5 Name 2 trees you identified growing in Inch Woodland

1

2

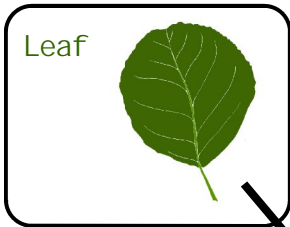

6 Label the parts of the tree from the list.

Trunk
Roots
Branches
Leaves

7

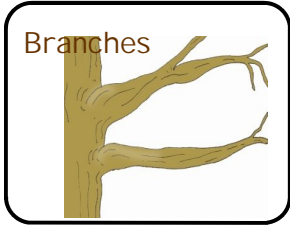

Each part of the tree has a job to do. What are they?
Match up the correct answers to the pictures. The first one is done for you!

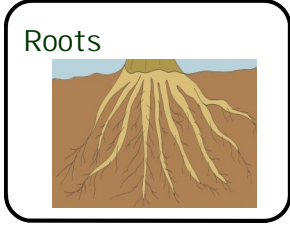

Anchors the tree into the ground and drinks up water and nutrients from the soil.

Protects the living part of the tree from attack and bad weather

Makes the food for the tree using the sun's energy

Holds up the leaves towards the sunlight

8

What is an invertebrate? Is it....

A An Animal with a backbone?

B An Animal without a backbone?

C An Animal with fur?

Answer

.....

9

Name 2 woodland invertebrates

1	2
---	---

10

Enter the results of your teams invertebrate hunt in the table below.
Fill in the blanks to record the name and quantity of invertebrate that you found.

Name of the invertebrate	The number found	Where you found it

Draw a picture of an invertebrate that you found.